SPEAKER BIOS (in order of appearance)

HENRY HANSCOM

*Chief Advocacy & Public Affairs
Officer, American Trucking Associations*

Henry Hanscom is Chief Advocacy & Public Affairs Officer of the American Trucking Associations, overseeing ATA's legislative, regulatory, and communications activities. Hanscom joined ATA in 2013 as Manager of Legislative Affairs before ascending the ranks to Senior Vice President of Legislative Affairs in 2024, where he led ATA's Capitol Hill office in championing a string of pro-trucking policy triumphs, such as repealing California's EV mandates, securing significant workforce and tax provisions in the One Big, Beautiful Bill, and supporting key Executive Branch nominations. Prior to joining ATA, Hanscom was a professional staffer for U.S. Senator Olympia Snowe (R-Maine).

JONATHAN OLSEN

*Division Administrator, Arizona
Division, Federal Motor Carrier
Safety Administration*

Jon Olsen has served as Division Administrator of FMCSA's Arizona Division since October of 2023. Prior to joining FMCSA, he was with the Minnesota State Patrol for nearly twenty years.

For over nine years, Jon was a Captain with the MN State Patrol, serving as Commander of the agency's Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Section. He was also involved with the Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance, serving in multiple committee leadership positions during his tenure as Captain with the Patrol. Jon holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Law Enforcement and Psychology from Minnesota State University, Mankato.

REBECCA GREGG

*Director of Claims, EAS and Committee Co-Chair, Trucking
Industry Defense Association
(TIDA)*

Rebecca Gregg is the Director of Claims at Entrusted Administrators & Subrogation (EAS), with nearly 20 years of experience in commercial insurance claims. Throughout her career, she has developed and led comprehensive Third-Party Administrator programs, managed complex claims, and designed customized service models for clients across transportation, professional liability, municipal, tribal, sexual abuse and molestation, entertainment, sports, and other specialized markets.

Rebecca's experience spans the full claim lifecycle, from first notice and early investigation through litigation and resolution. Her broader leadership responsibilities have included building claims operations, developing policies and procedures, implementing claims systems and vendor partnerships, overseeing compliance and audit initiatives, and supporting business development by translating client needs into practical operational solutions.

Known for her service-driven and client-centered approach, Rebecca leads with curiosity, ownership, and clear communication. She is committed to understanding each client's business, identifying what matters most to its stakeholders, and building claims programs that strengthen outcomes while delivering responsive, highly personalized service.

A lifelong Hoosier, Rebecca lives in the Indianapolis area. Before beginning her insurance career, she worked as a paleontologist and science educator. Outside of work, she enjoys reading, weightlifting, cake decorating, crafting, and spending time with friends and family.

BOB COSTELLO

*Chief Economist & SVP,
International Trade Policy,
American Trucking Associations*

Bob Costello is the Chief Economist & Senior Vice President for the American Trucking Associations (ATA), the national trade association for the trucking industry. Bob has been with ATA for over 25 years.

Besides being Chief Economist, Bob also heads up ATA's International Trade & Security Policy Department. In this capacity, he works on issues related to USMCA, tariffs, customs, cargo theft and security generally.

Bob is often cited in the news media as an expert on trucking economics, including the Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg, CNBC, FOX Business Channel, and National Public Radio.

In 2022, Bob was reappointed by the Secretary of Commerce to serve on the Advisory Committee on Supply Chain Competitiveness. He is on the Board of Directors for the Border Trade Alliance. Bob is also a member of the National Association for Business Economics and a member of the Industrial Economists Group at Harvard University.

Rebecca is the recipient of several awards including DC Velocity's 2025 Rainmakers, the 2013 Influential Woman in Trucking award from the Women in Trucking Association, and the 2010 J.R. Bob Halladay award given by the 50 state trucking associations.

Rebecca recently announced her upcoming retirement in early 2027, after serving ATRI for 34 years. Prior to joining ATRI, she was the Public and Governmental Affairs Director for the Cary, North Carolina Chamber of Commerce and a Fleet Analyst with Moen, Inc. Rebecca has a B.A. in English from Wofford College and she is a Fellow of the North Carolina Institute of Political Leadership.

STEVE BRYAN

*CEO and Co-Founder,

Steve is a veteran technology leader who fell in love with the trucking industry when he founded Vigillo in 2007. Vigillo was acquired by SambaSafety in a private equity backed transaction in 2017. Steve served for 3 ½ years on the Executive Team at SambaSafety as the EVP and GM of Transportation, overseeing the regulated trucking industry offerings within the broader SambaSafety business.

Steve is now back as CEO and one of three co-founders of Bluewire LLC, a cutting-edge AI Software as a Service (SaaS) company, launched to provide motor carriers, freight brokers and their insurance partners with a scientific, data-driven methodology to protect against the vulnerabilities which lead to catastrophic litigation outcomes.

Prior to founding Vigillo, Steve combined his legal and business experience to lead five software start-ups and emerging companies to successful exits. Earlier in his career, he worked as a District Manager for Dow Jones & Co. and served for six years in the
